Prague, Czech Republic

SPONSORSHIP AND EXHIBITION OPPORTUNITIES ICFSMA 2019

Welcome to the ICFSMA Conference 2019, which includes sessions on latest advances in material science,
their structural and magnetic characterization,
as well as emerging applications.

Why sponsoring ICFSMA 2019?

With a 5-day programme in the heart of the city Prague, there is plenty of room to present and promote your brand, company and products.

You will have the best opportunity to network with your returning and interested potential clients in the dedicated environment.

Over 100 confirmed attendees from all over the world – including USA, Japan, China, Central Europe and much more – can help you gain the visibility well beyond the conference site.

Conference venue

The exhibition will take place in the conference and social centre House of Professed of Charles University at Malostranské náměstí 2/25, Praha 1 (<https://www.mff.cuni.cz/en/house-of-professed>).
